Hey Queen.

This is your official invitation to awaken your inner wealthy woman, spark your creative energy, and accelerate your business growth at my 2-day luxury in-person retreat in California, USA!

I've made no secret that attending luxury retreats has transformed my life completely, and quantum leaped my business success as I:

- Got out of my every day environment and surrounded myself with big picture, successful, solutions-focussed women, who activated and inspired me to want more for myself and my mission.
- Made incredible connections that 10 x my visibility, through powerfully aligned collaborations such as Joint Ventures, Podcast Guest Opportunities & Guest Expert Speaking Sessions
- Reconnected with my inner guidance and intuition, so I returned home clearer than ever on what I was here to do
- Uplevelled my self-worth and reminded myself how far I had come, as I symbolically invested in myself (goodbye Martyr Mum who does everything for everyone else first) to be IN THE ROOM
- Embodied the values that I share with my clients, to choose yourself first and make your goals a priority, inspiring them every step of the way - it's no coincidence to me that I have always come back with multiple sales calls booked as a result - spoiler alert I have always received a very tangible ROI on my Mastermind & Retreat investments, that have paid me back 10 x what I invested!
- Increased my longevity in business my MAKING IT FUN! Who says you need to stay chained to a desk, and do business like a man? By investing in these truly transformational experiences, I have made every year feel like growth, expansion and fun - I can barely believe 9 years have literally flown by so quickly, and I am still obsessed with what I do!

And I would love all of this, and more, for you, to excite, expand and transform you, so that 2024 becomes the year THAT EVERYTHING CHANGED!

I have a sunlounger with your name on it Queen!

Love and Light, Rebecca x
